

CITIES, URBAN AREAS AND STAKEHOLDERS...

- How can you focus not only on challenges but find original, creative and effective solutions to thrive, both now and in the future?
- How can you better voice your needs and wants on the national and European levels?
- How can you ensure the best use of scarce resources and jointly make the case for extra (European) funding?

The European Metropolitan network Institute is creating and building a Multiannual Knowledge and Research Programme

Join the consortium of cities and stakeholders and invest in your urban future!

EMI is setting-up and implementing a Multiannual Programme, together with European cities and their stakeholders, on topics of utmost urban interest and concern.
